

Author's Name:

Date:

Writers Bingo

Instructions: Let's write! Fill in the bingo card with a marker/pen or by using an X mark when the task is done! Complete the chart and build a steady writing habit.

Your character falls in love with the last person they expected to.	Write a story told exclusively through dialogue.	Write about your character finding out they are the only one immune to a virus.	Your character gets a job offer they never would have thought to apply for.	Set your story at a convention of hobbies no one has heard before.
Set your story in a remote winter cabin with no electricity, internet, or phone service.	Your character is most wanted for a serious crime they didn't do.	Write a story in the form of a top-ten list.	A love story of elderly couples since as love birds since teenagers	Write about your character's new neighbour with an unusual pet.
Write about someone trying to atone for a mistake they'll never be able to fix.	Write a story where one character needs to betray the other, but isn't sure if they can.	Writers Bingo	Your character doesn't remember their past — and doesn't want to.	Write about a character who goes to — or purposefully avoids — their high school reunion.
Your character feels that the new teacher is a foreign enemy spy.	Write about someone who has a superpower.	Write a story set in the summer, when suddenly it starts to snow.	You character finds out they have a look alike with a different lavish life.	start or end a story with someone asking, "Can you keep a secret?"
Write a story where the power goes out on a spaceship or submarine.	Write a story about someone who discovers a mysterious object in their home.	Write a mystery where the detective realizes at the last moment that they have the wrong suspect.	Write a story about two strangers chatting while waiting for something.	Write a story from the different perspectives of two people meeting for a blind date.

